

Press Release

NTPC CMD Gurdeep Singh gives away medals at Khelo India Para Games

New Delhi, Dec 15: Shri Gurdeep Singh, Chairman and Managing Director of NTPC Ltd., graced the Khelo India Para Games with his presence on Friday and presented medals to the winners in the Para Powerlifting event. He affirmed NTPC's unwavering commitment to promoting inclusivity and excellence in Indian sports.

The National Thermal Power Corporation (NTPC) inked a key deal with the Sports Authority of India last year, wherein NTPC will be supporting for the growth of Archery in India for a period of 5 years, starting 2023-24. They have also committed a total amount of Rs. 115 Cr for the period.

The NTPC CMD lauded the grit and perseverance of the athletes as well as met teenage sensation para archer Sheetal Devi on Friday. He also reiterated NTPC's commitment to supporting such initiatives that celebrate inclusivity and diversity.

“NTPC has a long-standing tradition of promoting sports and creating opportunities for athletes of all abilities. The Khelo India Para Games is a historic platform to unearth more talents and I’m particularly pleased to let you know the growth of archery in India in the next years will reach the highest level,” Singh said.